

The Brooklyn Hospital Center

Keeping Brooklyn healthy.

CHAIRMAN, DEPARTMENT OF MEDICINE

The Brooklyn Hospital Center is conducting a search for the position of Chairman, Department of Medicine. The Brooklyn Hospital Center is a 464-bed community teaching hospital, located in the Downtown section of Brooklyn, New York. It provides comprehensive health services, education and research to the surrounding communities. A member of the New York-Presbyterian Healthcare System, many faculty hold academic appointments at Weill Cornell Medical College.

The Department of Medicine provides the finest primary and sub-specialty medical care while continuing a tradition of quality graduate medical education and clinical research. The Department consists of 200 physicians, in addition to 92 Interns/Residents and 5 Fellowship Programs with 26 Fellows. In 2010, the Department had over 8,500 discharges, 25,00 outpatient clinic visits and performed over 37,700 outpatient procedures.

The Chairman of Medicine will provide day-to-day leadership and management accountability for all components of the Department while leading the clinical and programmatic strategic initiatives, and support research and education. The incoming Chair has overall accountability for the development, growth and quality of clinical programs, patient throughput and clinical resource management.

The physician leader must be licensed or eligible for licensure in New York State, board-certified in his/her respective sub-specialty, and possess a career progression that includes clinical and administrative leadership experience appropriate to undertake a position of this scope and complexity. Candidates should have an appreciation of urban health issues, as well as an understanding of inner city populations and experience in urban healthcare.

Interested individuals should submit a letter or email expressing interest with curriculum vitae to:
